Shopping With My Cousins

Last Sunday, I went shopping with my older cousins. (0) Its was my first shopping trip without my parents. The day before, I (9) gone through my wardrobe. I took out clothes which were too (10) smaller. Then, I made a list of clothes I wanted to buy. I needed blouses, T-shirts, a skirt and a pair of jeans. After that, I counted how much money I had in my money box. I had RM245 (11) so I only wanted to spend RM130. My cousins and I were at Park Lane Mall at 10.30 a.m. One of my cousins suggested we only go to shops which had a sale. (12) Anyone agreed it was a great idea. All the shops offered (13) from 20% and 40% discounts so I got three tops for RM57. A few shops offered a 'buy one, free one' promotion. My cousin and I (14) buy skirts and jeans together so I only (15) pay half price for each outfit. In the end, I bought five outfits and spent RM107 (16) what was below my budget. It was a successful shopping trip!

Read the text below and complete the following table with no more than three words and/or a number from the text for each answer.

A Camp Fair

My friends and I love participating in outdoor nature activities. So when I saw a notice for a two-day Camp Fair, I told them about it. On Saturday, 18 April, my friends and I went to Villa Community Hall. It is located in Taman Seri Villa, a familiar neighbourhood because we often played football at Astana Court which is opposite the hall.

For 33 to 36, choose from the sentences (A – D) to fit each gap.

For 37 to 40, choose from the sentences (E – H) to fit each gap.

Starting a Conversation

Starting a conversation with someone new isn't easy. Fear of rejection, self-doubt, not sure what to say or awkwardness may stop us, and these challenges can be difficult. However, the following are tips to help you.

Before you start a conversation, appear approachable. (33) ____ Then, make eye contact. After that, introduce yourself to the person.

Ask an open-ended question so they can't give a 'Yes/No' reply. Don't ask personal questions; ask about general topics. (34) ____

Giving a compliment is another way. (35) ____ If you like what they are wearing, tell them. For example, you can say, "Those are really cool shoes. Where did you buy them?"

(36) ____ If you're in a public area, say something like, "The queue is long today, isn't it?" Or ask for information related to a situation. If you're at a workshop, say "I heard the speaker is very good."

- A Then, ask about their opinions or experiences.
- B You can also comment about your surroundings.
- C Put on a friendly smile.
- D Make sure it's genuine.

Read the email from your English-speaking friend, Amy.

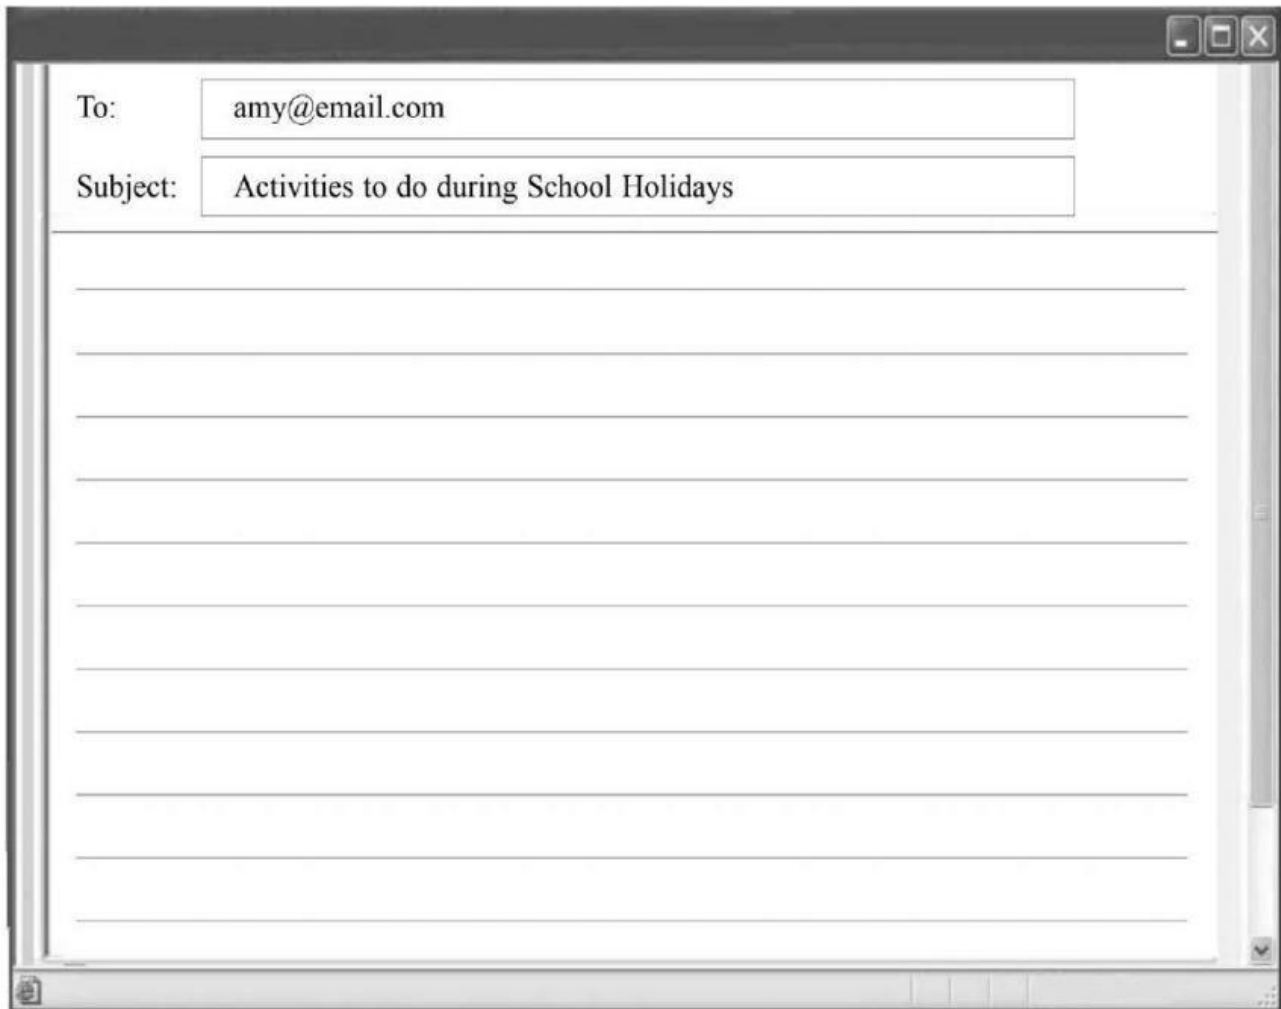

Hi,

I want to do something new and interesting during the school holidays. Should I join a talent contest, participate in a sports competition or join a writing workshop—or maybe something else? What should I do? Let me know what you think.

Best,

Amy

In about 60 words, write an email to Amy giving her some advice.

The image shows a computer window for composing an email. The 'To:' field contains 'amy@email.com' and the 'Subject:' field contains 'Activities to do during School Holidays'. Below these fields is a large text area with horizontal lines for writing the email body. The window has standard OS controls (minimize, maximize, close) in the top right corner and a taskbar at the bottom.
