ALICE'S TRAVEL DIARY

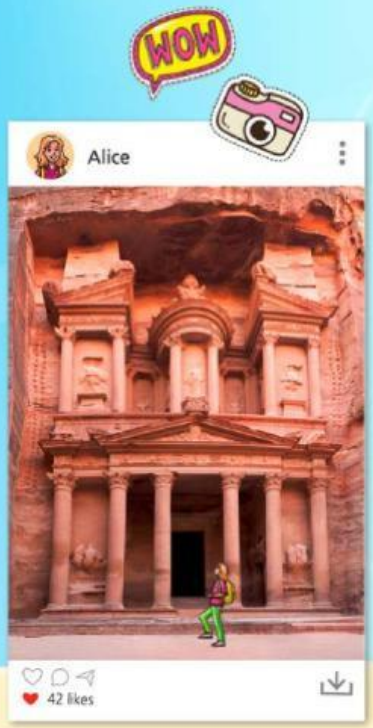

April 5

Guess where I am. I'm in Petra! It's a famous and very old city in Jordan.

In this picture, we're walking to one of the best parts of the city. Look at the narrow road! Look at the high walls around us! It was beautiful.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, we arrived at the Treasury. It's the most famous building in Petra. We were very excited to see it. But we weren't alone. There were too many people so it wasn't fun.

April 6

Dad and I wanted to see the Treasury without all the people. We decided to go again at 6:00 in the morning. There weren't many people because it was early. We took (צילמנו / إلتقطنا صورًا) some great photos. I can't believe the Treasury is about 2,000 years old. It still looks perfect.

We climbed 800 stairs to see another old building in Petra. Jake and I had a competition to see who could get to the top first. I was the winner. But Jake was close behind me. Mom and Dad arrived about 15 minutes later. They were slow because Dad was tired.

Look at the beautiful sand cat. It's walking across the hills. We were lucky to see it from our jeep on the way to Wadi Ram. Wadi Ram is an interesting place near Petra. Everything is red – the rocks (صخور / סלעים), the sand and the hills. Sometimes they make movies in Wadi Ram.

April 9

Here we are in Wadi Ram. This was the best day of the trip because we climbed 300 meters up the rocks. We were hungry when we arrived at the top. We had Mom's tasty sandwiches while we enjoyed the quiet of nature. We were tired when we climbed down. But we all agreed it was an excellent day.
