

TOM'S SHOPPING DAY

Read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

It was Tom's birthday, and he was very excited. In the morning, his grandmother gave him some money and said, "You can spend this on anything you like!" Tom went to the shopping center with a big smile on his face. First, he visited a clothes shop. He saw a cool blue T-shirt and tried it on. It looked great, so he bought it.

Next, he went to a bookshop. Tom loves reading, so he chose an adventure book about pirates. He couldn't wait to read it! After that, he stopped at a food shop. There were so many delicious treats! He bought some popcorn and a small box of chocolates.

Tom was very happy with his shopping, but as he walked home, he started to think. "Oh no!" he said. "I bought things for myself, but I didn't buy anything for Mum."

So Tom went back to the shops. He looked carefully and found a small gift shop. There, he saw a beautiful bracelet. "My mum will love this," he thought.

When Tom got home, he gave the bracelet to his mum. She smiled and gave him a big hug. "Thank you, Tom," she said. "This is the best present of all."
