

THE MAGIC SHOP

Read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

One afternoon, Lucy was walking home when she saw a small, strange shop. It wasn't there before. Above the door, there was a sign: Magic Shop.

Lucy felt curious, so she went inside. The shop was full of amazing things. There were flying shoes, talking books, and chocolate that never finished! A kind old man smiled at her. "You can buy one thing," he said.

Lucy looked around carefully. She saw a little box with a label: Make a wish. "What does it do?" she asked. "You make a wish, and it comes true," the man replied.

Lucy thought for a moment. She wanted many things—a new bike, lots of sweets, and fun toys. But then she remembered her best friend, Ben. He was sad because he couldn't play football. Lucy picked up the box. "I want this," she said. At home, she opened it and made a wish: "I want Ben to feel happy again."

The next day, Ben was smiling and playing with his friends. Lucy ran back to the shop to say thank you—but it wasn't there.

She smiled. Maybe the magic shop would help another child next time.
