INDEFINITE PRONOUNS

PEOPLE	THINGS
(+) somebody	(+) something
(-) anybody	(-) anything
Nobody= no one	Nothing

COMPLETE WITH AN INDEFINITE PRONOUN

1.-My dad has done …….. important today.

2.-Are you doing …….. difficult at work?

3.-He met…….. from New Zealand.

4.-I wonder if there's …….. wrong here.

5.-Would you like to drink …….. hot?

6.-Somebody knocked on my door but there wasn't ……..

7.-My friends wanted …….. to eat the soup.

8.-I'm sorry, but I haven't prepared …….. for dinner tonight.

9.-Don't make …….. stupid. Be careful!

10.- Could I have …….. to eat?

11.-Look! …….. is sleeping in my bed.

12.-Excuse me but I don't know …….. about it.

13.-Haven't you lost ……..?

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION

1.- Is anybody /somebody at home?

2.- There is somebody/anybody waiting for you at the front door.

3.-She doesn't need anything/something.

4.- There's somebody/something in my eye.

5.- Call me, if you need anything/something.

6.- I met something/somebody at the disco.

7.- He wants to buy somebody/something for his mother.

8.-I haven't got anything/something to do today.

No one= Nobody , Nothing are used to refer to an absence of people or things. We use them with a singular verb.

Examples: Nobody came yesterday

I did nothing at all (I didn't do anything)

Nothing will make me change my mind

LIVEWORKSHEETS