

Listen to a report about the sculptor Jim Haynes who has become a dinner host. While listening, choose the correct answer (A,B,C or D) and write it into the space in the answer box.

Inviting The World To Dinner

<https://www.npr.org/player/embed/99172304/99265086>

- 1. Haynes finds personal fulfilment in being
 - A. a founder of theatres.
 - B. a founder of magazines.
 - C. active in the world of culture.
 - D. a dinner host.

- 2. Around fifty people can come to his house if
 - A. they have met him before.
 - B. they have contacted him early enough.
 - C. the garden hasn't been flooded.
 - D. the weather is fine.

- 3. The meals are cooked by
 - A. a young philosopher from Lisbon.
 - B. a trainee chef from London.
 - C. one of the people who called.
 - D. one of Haynes' friends.

- 4. Haynes' dinners are good for meeting new people because
 - A. his guests sit where they want.
 - B. he mixes with his guests.
 - C. he carefully selects his guests.
 - D. his guests don't sit down to eat.

- 5. Haynes memorizes details about his guests in order to
 - A. write a guest list.
 - B. train his memory skills.
 - C. make them known to each other.
 - D. address them personally.

6. In his travel books Haynes wrote about

- A. the role of friendship.
- B. good shopping facilities.
- C. hospitable local people.
- D. spectacular sights.

7. At one of Haynes' dinners not long ago

- A. a Bosnian family brought along their Estonian friends.
- B. one couple had their children with them.
- C. the parents of two children became close friends.
- D. two children formed a close bond.

8. Haynes is convinced that it is very important to

- A. speak at least a little English.
- B. show regard for other people.
- C. comprehend with other people.
- D. meet people from other professions.

9. Above all, Haynes believes that

- A. all lives are interrelated.
- B. life should be enjoyed.
- C. everybody needs a soul mate.
- D. everybody should travel the world.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9