

Part 1Read the text and answer the questions. Choose the correct answer.

People around the world enjoy many festivals. During Eid, families meet and celebrate together. People usually give gifts and eat special food. During Haq Al Laila, many people decorate their homes. They usually put up decorations and have parties. The Water Festival in Thailand is always in April. During this festival, people splash water on each other in the streets. During Chinese New Year, people sometimes watch fireworks and wear traditional costumes. Festivals are a special time for families and communities

1.	What do people usually do during Eid? A. Families meet and celebrate together. B. People go to the work.	4.	When is the Water Festival in Thailand? A. April B. May
2.	What do people put up during Haq Al Laila? A. play B. decorate their homes.	5.	What is the text about? A. festivals of the world B. inventions
3.	What do people sometimes watch during Chinese New Year? A. They watch fireworks . B. They decorate their homes.

/10