Word box:
charity • raise money • sponsored • bake sale • popularity • encouraged • judge • competition • persuade • colleagues • stress reliever • take part in • confident • speciality • finalists • criteria • effort • decoration • technically • complimentary • standards

---

Text

People do many different things to (1) _____ for (2) _____. Some people run marathons or do (3) _____ events like a skydive. Another popular way is a (4) _____, which has grown in (5) _____ in the UK. A TV show has (6) _____ many people to start baking.

At Oxford University Press, employees decided to (7) _____ a charity bake sale. It was also a (8) _____, and two professional bakers were invited to (9) _____ the cakes. Some people had to (10) _____ their (11) _____ to join.

Emma likes baking because it is a (12) _____, and she felt (13) _____ about her biscuits, although she said it was not her (14) _____. There were several (15) _____, and the judges used different (16) _____ such as taste, (17) _____, and (18) _____.

In the end, the winner's cake was (19) _____ brilliant. The judges were very (20) _____ about the cakes, and the event raised a lot of money. The overall (21) _____ were very high.

LIVEWORKSHEETS