

TRS601 – 3 themes – Review

1. During the summer season, a _____ tourists visit the coastal city, creating both opportunities and challenges for local businesses.
A. tactical loss
B. vast number of
C. resource allocation
D. downfall
2. After years of research and several failed attempts, the team achieved _____ success with their new technology.
A. generic
B. episodic
C. eventual
D. analogous
3. Within the academic _____, her work on climate change is widely respected and frequently discussed at international conferences.
A. sphere
B. downfall
C. hiccup
D. sanction
4. Living and studying abroad for several years helped shape her _____ and gave her a broader perspective on life.
A. discipline
B. allegiance
C. self-identity
D. patriotism
5. His explanation does not _____ the data presented in the report, which raises concerns about its accuracy.
A. foster
B. correspond to
C. incur
D. opt for
6. The patient experiences _____ memory loss, meaning that the symptoms appear occasionally rather than continuously.
A. generic
B. fluid
C. episodic
D. robust
7. The instructions provided in the manual were too _____, so beginners found it difficult to follow them correctly.
A. generic
B. strategic
C. critical
D. retaliatory
8. Emergency teams are trained to respond quickly and effectively to _____ such as earthquakes, floods, and major accidents.

- A. downturns
B. life-threatening events
C. hiccups
D. sanctions
9. Because her schedule is quite _____, she can easily adjust her plans when unexpected situations arise.
A. strategic
B. fluid
C. robust
D. critical
10. During the national celebration, many citizens proudly displayed flags to express their strong sense of _____.
A. discipline
B. allegiance
C. patriotism
D. reinforcement
11. Students are encouraged to _____ volunteer work in order to develop both practical skills and social responsibility.
A. opt for
B. engage in
C. tackle
D. leverage
12. Governments often try to _____ economic growth by investing heavily in education, technology, and infrastructure.
A. foster
B. curb
C. enact
D. cede
13. Regular praise and recognition can act as _____, motivating employees to continue improving their performance.
A. discipline
B. reinforcement
C. leverage
D. sanction
14. After violating several international agreements, the country lost its _____ and faced criticism from other nations.
A. diplomatic status
B. downfall
C. allegiance
D. sanction
15. It is now _____ that climate change is having serious effects on weather patterns around the world.
A. analogous
B. critical
C. indisputable
D. generic

16. The museum houses valuable artifacts from _____, offering visitors insight into ancient civilizations and cultures.
A. downfall
B. antiquity
C. sphere
D. hiccup
17. The company's _____ began when poor leadership decisions led to financial losses and a damaged reputation.
A. downfall
B. leverage
C. sanction
D. outbreak
18. After long negotiations, the country agreed to _____ control of the disputed territory to avoid further conflict.
A. curb
B. cede
C. incur
D. enact
19. He had _____ finished his assignment when the teacher suddenly asked everyone to submit their work.
A. predominantly
B. scarcely
C. ostensibly
D. robustly
20. Once you understand the basic principles of economics, the theory will _____ and become much easier to apply.
A. incur
B. go awry
C. make perfect sense
D. devolve into
21. Although the two systems seem similar at first, they are not truly _____ because they operate under different rules.
A. retaliatory
B. equivalent
C. prospective
D. innumerable
22. The government introduced new policies to _____ the rise in inflation and stabilize the economy.
A. foster
B. leverage
C. curb
D. opt for
23. In many developing countries, agriculture is _____ the main source of income for the population.
A. fluid
B. predominantly

- C. episodic
 - D. analogous
24. Doctors worked quickly to _____ the patient after he stopped breathing during the emergency.
- A. tackle
 - B. incur
 - C. resuscitate
 - D. opt for
25. Many citizens feel a strong sense of _____ to their country, especially during times of crisis.
- A. discipline
 - B. allegiance
 - C. reinforcement
 - D. leverage