1. Read the text about Argentina carefully. Then do the following tasks.

ARGENTINA

Argentina is a large and diverse country in South America. It is known for its rich culture, beautiful landscapes, and lively cities. The capital city is Buenos Aires, which is famous for its busy atmosphere, European-style buildings, and tango music. Buenos Aires is sometimes called the "Paris of South America" because of its beautiful streets and culture.

Argentina has different kinds of geography. It has the Andes mountains, large plains called pampas, and amazing natural places like glaciers, waterfalls, and forests. One of the most famous places is Iguazu Falls, a large group of waterfalls shared with Brazil. The climate in Argentina is different in each region, from warm in the north to cold in the south, so people can enjoy many outdoor activities.

Argentina has a strong culture influenced by European immigrants, especially from Spain and Italy. This can be seen in its music, dance, art, and food. The country has had political and economic problems, but people are proud of their country. Argentina offers a mix of natural beauty, culture, and friendly people. Many tourists visit every year to see different places and traditions. They can walk in the busy streets of Buenos Aires or go hiking in Patagonia. Visitors find Argentina a very interesting place to visit.

BUENOS AIRES

The economy of Argentina is based on farming, industry, and services. It is one of the world's top producers of beef and soybeans. Football is very popular, and many people love it. Argentine food includes dishes like asado (barbecue), empanadas, and mate, a traditional drink that people share with friends.

Task 1: Complete the Notes about Argentina. Write NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS for each answer.

1. Capital city: _____.

2. Famous for: _____ and _____.

3. A famous waterfall: _____.

4. Popular sport: _____.

5. Traditional food: _____.

Task 2: Choose the Best Summary

Which is the best summary of the text?

A. Argentina is only famous for football.

B. Argentina has culture, nature, and many attractions.

C. Argentina is a small country with cold weather.

2. Fill in the blanks with: a few, few, a little, little, many, much, a lot of

1. I have _____ friends in my class, so I never feel lonely.

2. There is _____ milk in the fridge. We need to buy more.

3. She doesn't have _____ time to finish her homework today.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. We saw _____ beautiful places when we visited Argentina.

5. He drinks _____ water every day to stay healthy.

3. Read the problem and write at least THREE pieces of advice using modal verbs you have learned (must, mustn't, have to, don't have to, needn't, ought to, can, could).

Sample Problem:

"I feel very tired every day and I have too much homework."

Example Answers:

- You ought to go to bed earlier.
- You mustn't stay up late.
- You can ask your teacher for help.
- You don't have to do everything at once.

Problem 1:

"I want to be healthier, but I eat a lot of fast food and don't do any exercise."

Problem 2:

"I have an English test next week, but I don't know how to study."

4. Read the email from your friend Phoebe.

💬 Phoebe's email:

"Hi,

I'm Phoebe. I'm from France and I want to start learning English, but I don't know where to begin. It feels a bit difficult and confusing.

Can you give me some advice on how to start and learn English more easily? What should I do first?

Thanks,

Phoebe"

Write an email to Phoebe and give her some advice based on your own experience of learning English. Write at least 250 words. In your email, you should write about:

- what the first step is when learning English
- how to build basic vocabulary and grammar
- useful learning methods (apps, videos, songs, books, etc.)
- tips to practise speaking, listening, reading, and writing
- how often to practise (daily routine, short but regular study)
- how to stay motivated and not feel afraid of making mistakes
- your own personal experience (what helped you the most)
- advice on setting simple goals when learning English