"The Messy Room" (Sentence Transformation)

Instructions: Change the affirmative sentences into negative sentences. Remember: when you change a sentence to negative, some must change to any.

Example: There are some books. → There aren't any books.

There is some coffee in the mug.

There are some pens on the desk.

There are some pictures on the wall.

There is some sugar in the tea.

There are some pillows on the bed.

There is some bread in the basket.

There are some chairs in the room.

There is some soap in the bathroom.

There are some shoes under the bed.

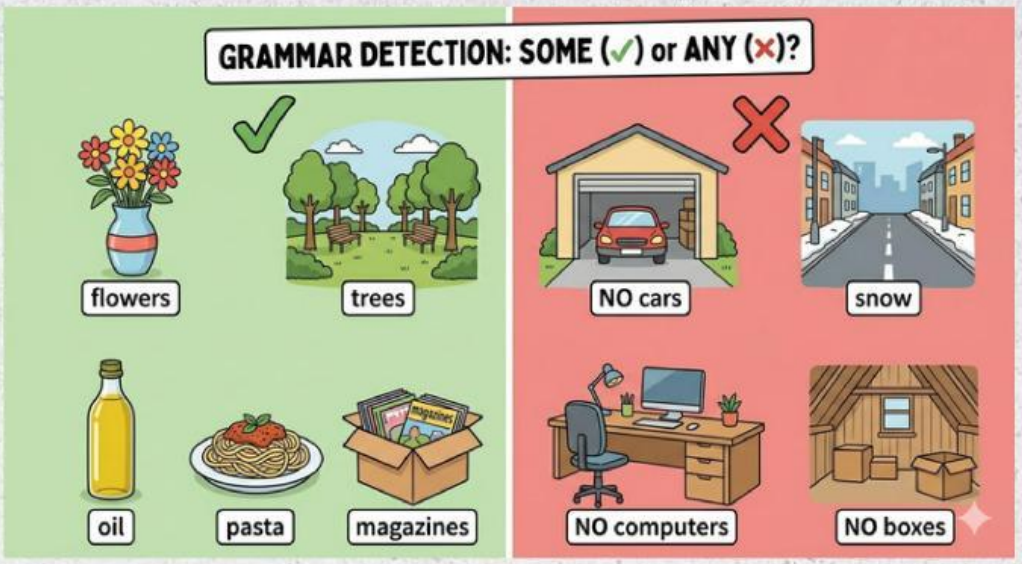
There is some salt in the soup.

There are some coins in the wallet.

There is some chocolate in the bag.

There are some windows in the house.

LIVEWORKSHEETS



Instructions: Look at the list below.
If the sentence has [YES], write an affirmative sentence using there is some or there are some.
If it has [NO], write a negative sentence using there isn't any or there aren't any.

[YES] flowers / in the vase: _____

[NO] cars / in the garage: _____

[YES] meat / in the soup: _____

[NO] students / in the classroom: _____

[YES] trees / in the park: _____

[NO] snow / on the street: _____

[YES] oil / in the bottle: _____

[NO] mirrors / in the hall: _____

[YES] tea / in the teapot: _____

[NO] computers / in the office: _____

[YES] pasta / on the plate: _____

[NO] keys / in the drawer: _____

[YES] magazines / on the sofa: _____

[NO] soup / in the bowl: _____

[YES] boxes / in the attic: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS