Food Drive

Grammar Rule: Present-Tense Action Verbs

LO Content

A present-tense action verb tells what happens now or what happens often. If the subject of the sentence tells about one other person or thing, add -s to the end of most action verbs. For other subjects, do not add -s.

His sisters buy milk.

Fill in the blanks with present-tense action verbs.
