

1. Match each college subject with the most logical job situation.

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| 1. Medicine ____ | A. People in this field often manage projects and design systems. |
| 2. Law ____ | B. Graduates usually apply to work in schools or universities. |
| 3. Computer Science ____ | C. Professionals sign a contract to work in hospitals. |
| 4. Education ____ | D. Workers in this field often receive a high salary in technology companies. |
| 5. Engineering ____ | E. People study this subject to understand rules and work with an employer in court. |

3. Read the situation and write the correct subject or employment word.

1. You study living things, plants, and animals.
→ _____
2. You receive money every hour you work.
→ _____
3. You design buildings and urban spaces.
→ _____
4. This is the long-term path of jobs you have in life.
→ _____
5. You stop working permanently at the age of 65.
→ _____

4. Complete the paragraph with your own ideas.

I would like to study _____ at college. This subject can help me have a good _____ in the future. I would like to _____ for a job where the employer respects my _____. In my ideal job, I would like fair working hours and a good _____.

2. Complete the sentences using one word from the boxes.

apply – contract – education – profession – economics

- a. She studied _____ and now works as a teacher.
- b. After graduation, he decided to _____ for a job in a software company.
- c. People who study _____ often work in banks or government offices.
- d. His _____ clearly explains his salary and working hours.
- e. Nursing is a _____ that requires responsibility and care.

5. Read the text and complete it with the correct words from the box.

apply – career – contract – employer – profession – salary (2) – wage – working hours – education – engineering – medicine – law

After finishing secondary school, many students continue their _____ at college. Some choose subjects such as _____ or _____ because they want to prepare for a _____ that helps people and improves society. Others prefer _____ because they are interested in technology and building systems.

When students graduate, they usually _____ for their first job. The _____ offers them a _____ that explains their responsibilities, _____, and _____. Some jobs pay a monthly _____, while others pay a _____ based on hours worked.

Choosing the right subject at college is an important step toward a successful _____.

Read the sentences taken from the text.
Underline the modal verbs in each sentence.

1. Students have to follow certain rules at college.
2. They need to attend classes regularly.
3. In some courses, students must wear special clothes.
4. Students can use the library and online platforms.
5. They may ask teachers for extra help.
6. Students must not copy other people's work.
7. They can't submit assignments that are not their own.
8. Employees have to respect their contract.
9. Workers may take short breaks at work.
10. In many jobs, employees don't have to wear formal clothes every day.

Match each sentence to its function.

Function	Sentence numbers
A. Something is necessary or obligatory	_____
B. Something is allowed, permitted	_____
C. Something is not allowed, prohibited	_____
D. Something is not necessary	_____

Complete the sentences based on your answers.

- We use _____ / _____ / _____ to talk about necessity or obligation.
- We use _____ / _____ to talk about permission.
- We use _____ / _____ to talk about prohibition or that something is not allowed.
- We use _____ to say something is not necessary.

1. Choose the correct answer.

1. Students must / don't have to copy other people's work.
2. Employees can / must not leave work without permission.
3. You have to / may wear a helmet in the engineering lab.
4. Workers don't have to / must wear uniforms if there is no dress code.
5. Students can't / may use the library after showing their ID.

2. Complete each sentence using must, have to, don't have to, can, may, or must not.

1. At college, students _____ attend classes regularly.
2. In some jobs, workers _____ wear protective clothes.
3. You _____ ask the teacher for help if you don't understand.

4. Employees _____ arrive late without informing their employer.
5. In many offices, you _____ wear formal clothes every day.

3. Rewrite the sentences using the word in brackets.

1. Wearing formal clothes is not necessary. (don't have to)
→ _____

2. It is forbidden to copy during exams. (must not)
→ _____

3. It is allowed to use the computer after class. (can)
→ _____

4. Wearing safety gloves is necessary in the lab. (have to)
→ _____
