

Size & Shape Adjectives

WRITING ACTIVITY

Put the words in the correct order following the adjective order in the box:

Adjective Order Rule:

Opinion → Size → Shape → Color → Noun

bag

pyramid

balloon

The square black bag.

The triangle golden pyramid.

The heart red balloon.

- a) ball / red / beautiful / round / big: A _____
- b) box / small / square / ugly / blue: An _____
- c) table / rectangular / brown / great / big: A _____
- d) plate / round / white / nice / small: A _____
- e) mirror / oval / interesting / large / silver: An _____
- f) balloon / round / yellow / fun / big: A _____
- g) sign / triangular / red / strange / small: A _____
- h) cake / delicious / round / pink / big: A _____
- i) pillow / comfortable / square / blue / small: A _____
- j) hat / stylish / round / black / tiny: A _____

Size & Shape Adjectives

READING ACTIVITY

Read the dialogues and answer the questions.

The Lost Key

Ana: Hey Tom, I can't find my key.

Tom: What does it look like?

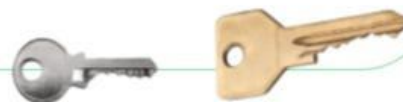

Ana: It is a small round silver key.

Tom: Is it this one?

Ana: No, that key is too big mine is tiny.

Tom: Oh! I see it on the table. There is a small round key next to the book.

Ana: Yeah, That's my key. Thank you!

- What is Ana looking for? _____
- How does Ana describe her key? _____
- Why does Ana say the first key is not hers? _____

The Missing Plate

Dad: Mia, where is the plate for the cake?

Mia: Which plate?

Dad: The big round plate. It is very nice.

Mia: Is it the plate on the table?

Dad: No, that plate looks awful.

Mia: I think I break it yesterday.

Dad: Oh, It was perfect for the cake.

- What is Mia's Dad looking for? _____
- How does he describe the plate? _____
- What happened to the plate? _____