Student A: ERIC LEMARQUE

It was getting late and Eric LeMarque decided to have one final run on his snowboard. As he [1]'d gone / was going down the mountain, he [2]came / was coming across some thick fog and headed in the wrong direction. All of a sudden he was completely lost. All he had with him was his snowboard, some bubble gum and an MP3 player. Eventually, he [3]remembered / 'd remembered something he [4]was seeing / 'd seen in a movie about using an MP3 player as a compass. This meant he was able to get an idea of where he was and head in the right direction, up the mountain. Eric was missing for a week. During that time, he fell in a river, almost went down a waterfall and had to walk through snow that was four and a half metres deep! On the eighth day he was seen by a helicopter that [5]had searched / had been searching for him. He was completely exhausted but alive.
