

Student B: RICKY MEGEE

A farmer couldn't believe what he saw when he came across a stranger living on his farm. The man, Ricky Megee, <sup>1</sup>lived / had been living off the land in the Australian bush for two months. Ricky <sup>2</sup>had been driving / had driven near the border of Western Australia and Northern Territory. He <sup>3</sup>stopped / had stopped to help some people whose car had broken down and offered one of them a lift to a nearby town. Unfortunately, the passenger turned out to be a robber, who stole Ricky's car. Ricky was now completely lost in the bush. He <sup>4</sup>ate / had eaten insects, snakes and frogs and eventually managed to find a dam to provide him with water. He built a small shelter there and waited, hoping to be rescued. 71 days after being left, Ricky was found by the farmer. He <sup>5</sup>'d lost / was losing more than 50 kg in weight during his time in the bush.

