

Name _____ Date _____

Grammar

What is in the Garden?

Grammar Rules be/have; Subject-Verb Agreement

The verbs be and have are irregular. The subject and verb must agree. Use these correct forms:

I am	We are	I have	We have
You are	They are	You have	They have
He is / She is / It is		He has / She has / It has

-  Write the correct form of be or have to complete each sentence. Choose the correct form for the subject.

Jenna and Jake have a large garden. Jake's favorite vegetable _____ corn. He _____ several rows of corn in the garden. The corn _____ almost ready to harvest. Both Jenna and Jake _____ excited to roast ears of corn. They also grow tomatoes. Tomatoes _____ their mother's favorite vegetable. Jenna planted sunflowers, too. They _____ delicious seeds and pretty blooms.

I _____ planning to help them pick some corn. I _____ a basket I will take with me.