MC: Hi everyone. Today, I'll ask some members of the Technology Club to predict how people will communicate in the future. Let's meet Minh and Tom. Minh & Tom: Hi everyone. MC: Minh and Tom, how do you and your friends keep in contact? Minh: Well, we mostly text each other. We also send voice messages. Tom: I often see my friends in person, but sometimes we call via the Internet. MC: Do you think these ways of communication will still be popular in 50 years? Tom: Not really. We'll use more advanced ways, like telepathy. We'll pass our thoughts to another person without talking and ... MC: Hold on. I think only a very few people may have this ability. Minh: Yes, but in the future, everyone will be able to use telepathy. We'll wear a tiny device to catch our thoughts and send them to other people. MC: Cool! But will there be any problems with telepathy? Tom: Hmm, telepathy devices can "read" one's mind, so bad people might take advantage of it to control someone else. MC: Besides that, some people will	Read the interview again. Choose the correct answer A, B, or C. 1. What is the interview mainly about? A. One way of future communication. B.
