

Movies are a popular form of entertainment all over the world. There are many different types of movies such as action, comedy, horror, and animation. Each type gives viewers a different feeling. For example, action movies are exciting, while comedies make people laugh.

Watching movies can also be a good way to learn English. Students can improve their listening and learn new vocabulary by watching films with subtitles. However, it is important not to spend too much time watching movies and to balance it with studying
