Task Two: Ben Phones his Friend Bill (14 marks)

Ben invites his friend to go on a picnic.

Listen to the conversation. After each part of the conversation, write a short answer to the question. You will hear the conversation twice.

First, listen to the example.

Example: Who answers the phone?

Bill's father

1 What was Bill's plan for Sunday before Ben phoned?

2 How will they get to the picnic place?

3 What time will they arrive at the picnic place?

4 How many times has Bill been fishing?

5 When did Ben catch a fish?

6 Which homework has Ben done?

7 Where will Ben and Bill meet on Sunday morning?

Task Three: Bill Talks to Mr Brown (15 marks)

In the car Bill asks Mr Brown about his job.

What are Bill's questions? Write them in the spaces. The first one is an example.

Bill: Example: Can I ask you some questions, Mr Brown?

Mr Brown: Yes, of course you can. What would you like to know?

Bill: ?

Mr Brown: I've been a pilot for about 12 years now.

Bill: ?

Mr Brown: Australia? Yes I have, I flew there last year.

Bill: ?

Mr Brown: At university? I studied science.

Bill: ?

Mr Brown: The best thing about it? I met Mrs Brown there!

Bill: ?

Mr Brown: Mrs Brown? Yes, sometimes. Last year she flew to Germany with me.

Task Four: Let's Stop for a While (5 marks)

Bill and the Brown family have stopped for a rest on their way to their picnic.

Look at the pictures. Draw a line from the pictures to the correct sentences. The first one is an example.

Be careful. There are two extra sentences.

That'll be two pounds please.

Come on, there's enough room for all of us here.

Yes, you can sit here. We're going now.

Come on then! Everybody get out.

You have to pay for it over there.

Can you fill it up please?

Can I have another one please?

Look, it's all over the table!

Task Five: Bill Writes in his Diary (10 marks)

After the picnic Bill writes about the day in his diary.

Fill in the gaps USING ONE WORD IN EACH GAP. The first one is an example.

I had (example) a great day today. Ben invited me to go

(1) his family on a picnic. Sophie and Jack were there too (2) Anna couldn't come.

We drove to a lake in the mountains and stopped

(3) have the picnic. We had

(4) of different sandwiches and there was lemonade

as well.

After the picnic Ben went fishing while Mr Brown (5) sleeping in the car. Sophie looked after Jack (6) he is too young to be by himself. I went for a short walk round the lake. I have

(7) seen such a beautiful place.

When we got home, I was (8) tired that I went straight to bed. I enjoyed our day out (9) much and one day

I (10) like to go back to that lake again.
