Collecting milk bottles

Why do people collect milk bottles? [3]__ They come from different places, with unique designs, logos, and even colours. Some bottles have beautiful writing, while others have funny pictures.

This hobby is also a great way to make friends. There are clubs and online groups where people share their collections. [4]__ You can put some bottles on an empty shelf, keep flowers in them, or just use them as water bottles.

a It's because each bottle tells a story.

b Plus, it's a great way to decorate your flat.
