Fiction Reading Comprehension

Mia adjusted her backpack as she stood at the edge of the mountain path. Below her, clouds moved slowly across the valley, hiding the villages beneath them. She had been hiking for hours, and her legs were starting to ache, but she didn't want to stop now.

Her grandfather had once told her about a hidden viewpoint at the top of the trail—a place where "the whole world feels quiet." Mia wasn't sure if it was real, but she was determined to find it.

As she continued climbing, the path became steeper and narrower. Loose stones slipped under her feet, and the wind grew stronger. For a moment, she hesitated. Then she took a deep breath and kept going.

Finally, she reached the top. The clouds cleared, and the view opened wide before her. Mia smiled. It had been worth the climb.
