

TV programmes

Read and write the correct TV programme.

You listen to information about the weather on this programme.

You answer questions on this programme

You can see cowboys in the west of the USA.

You can see how people play sports on this programme

You can learn about animals and plants on this programme

You can see cowboys in the west of the USA.

This is a story that you see every day.
Real people act

You can watch it at home or at cinema

This programme is very funny. You always laugh

You receive information about your country and the world on this programme

People talk about one topic on this programme
