

LISTENING

1. Listen to the text and fill in the blanks with the missing words.

(10x10p=100p)

Top Career Choices of the Future

Students pick occupations for many reasons, not always good ones. a. _____, prestige, and mystique are a few of the attractive factors that can enter into the equation. Yet choosing something that simply sounds b. _____ may not be the best option.

c. _____ no one can predict the future, it makes more sense to check trends in the economy and the d. _____ before making that critical decision. Picking the right field will make landing a dream job after school a e. _____. Having the ability to see the big picture is key. You should research the jobs that will be in f. _____ in 10 to 20 years to determine the best future careers.

The key word would be explore. Explore every option – don't g. _____ yourself. Think that you can do whatever you h. _____ to do. Don't sell yourself short. Think globally. Choosing a career can be complicated because of today's rapidly changing world. It takes more than i. _____ work and a little luck to find employment that can provide an adequate j. _____ and lifestyle.

2. Listen to the information on up-and-coming jobs and complete the sentences. (8x12,5p = 100p)

- a. Up-and-coming jobs in healthcare include pharmacists, dentists, _____ and physician assistants.
- b. When choosing a career in healthcare, consider the salary, status and _____.
- c. Some jobs in health care require long hours, _____ and holidays.
- d. If you seek job security, there will be many professions in non-profit organisations and _____.
- e. These professions include school psychologists, urban planners, higher education _____ and professors.
- f. For human interaction jobs, consider occupational therapy, speech therapy, school counselling or _____.
- g. Some examples of the best jobs in engineering, science and computers are robotics, _____, virtual reality and gene therapy.
- h. Being a chef typically involves working _____ and weekends.

Good work!