adventures, lake, food, animals, daughter, dragon

COMPLETE THE TEXT. Choose one of the option given:
Once upon a time there was a knight, George. He had lots of .....1.... and one day he came to a small village attacked by a terrible dragon that lived in the .....2.....
The villagers didn't know what to do. First, they gave the dragon all their .....3...., but the dragon just took it and still attacked the village. Then the villagers gave the dragon all the .....4....from their farms. The dragon took them, but continued to attack the villagers. So then they gave the dragon all their gold and jewels. The dragon took all their money, but still was not satisfied.
With nothing left to give, the king sent his .....5...., the princess, to the lake to wait for the dragon.
When George heard this he rode his horse fast and attacked the dragon because it wanted to eat the princess. George was very brave, won the fight and killed the .....6..... George and the princess returned to the village and everyone was very pleased .
Today, the story of George's bravery is remembered and George is the patron saint of many countries.

LIVEWORKSHEETS