

From Reading to Writing 1

Chapter 2: The Land of Smiles

A. Choose the best answer.

1. Which sentence uses agree correctly?

- A. I agree that Thailand is a country in Asia.
- B. I agree my homework on the desk.
- C. I agree the joke loudly.
- D. I agree uncomfortable shoes.

2. What does expression usually mean?

- A. a country in Southeast Asia
- B. a look on someone's face
- C. a type of joke
- D. a relationship between two people

3. If someone feels uncomfortable, they are...

- A. relaxed and happy
- B. agreeing with a friend
- C. laughing at a joke
- D. annoyed or uneasy

4. Which word best fits: "He told a funny ___ that made everyone laugh."

- A. expression
- B. joke
- C. notice
- D. relationship

5. If you owe someone money, it means...

- A. You noticed their expression
- B. You annoyed them with a joke
- C. You borrowed and must pay back
- D. You agreed with their opinion

6. Which word means "to see or become aware of something"?

- A. annoyed
- B. notice
- C. especially
- D. relationship

7. "She answered the question ____, without waiting." Which word fits?

- A. right away
- B. Thailand
- C. annoying
- D. expression

8. Which sentence uses relationship correctly?

- A. Their relationship grew stronger after the trip.
- B. He relationship the homework quickly.
- C. The relationship was a funny joke.
- D. She relationship the notice on the wall.

9. If someone is annoyed, they feel...

- A. happy and relaxed
- B. funny and joking
- C. agreeable and supportive
- D. irritated or bothered

10. Which word best completes: "I love spicy food, ____ Thai dishes."

- A. annoying
- B. e xpression
- C. especially
- D. owe

B. Use the following words in a sentence.

1. funny
2. face
3. Thailand
4. annoying
5. hump