

ERROR CORRECTION WORKSHEET

- Task 1: Find and correct the mistakes

Correct the sentences below. Each sentence contains 1–3 mistakes.

1. Finishing upper secondary school is a time of making important decisions.

→ _____

2. Schools should help students with finding their interests and learning teamwork skills.

→ _____

3. Unfortunately school system often focus on exam knowledge.

→ _____

4. Schools don't have enough after schools classes like sports or art.

→ _____

5. Students mostly use them for learning to learn for classes like polish or math.

→ _____

6. This is the result of being pushed by teachers and system for the best grades.

→ _____

7. Skills valued by employers are much different then what we learn at school.

→ _____

8. Workplace needs teamwork, communication and open mindedness.

→ _____

9. If homeworks are done in group it's wrong.

→ _____

10. This is why is so hard for students to find place in job market.

→ _____

11. Labour market is changing every year.

→ _____

12. Schools put so huge pressure on final exam results.

→ _____

13. Students spend four to five years being told about importance of matura exam.

→ _____

14. Too much pressure is put on exams while important skills are neglected.

→ _____

15. I think system should focus more on students future.

→ _____

- Task 2: Improve the sentences (make them more natural)

Rewrite the sentences using better English:

1. Schools don't have classes that help develop hobbies.

→ _____

2. Students don't know what they are good at.

→ _____

3. It is hard for students to find their place in job market.

→ _____

- Task 3: Key grammar focus

 Complete with: a / the / – (no article)

1. ___ school system should prepare students for ___ future.

2. ___ labour market is changing quickly.

3. Students need ___ skills like teamwork and communication.

4. ___ exams are important, but not everything.

