

- 1 The studies conducted revealed that animals like the
- 2 Because of their poor vision, cave rats use their
to find their way out.
- 3 It was discovered in the research that some troglodytes found water in
- 4 As everyone knows, bats hibernate and live in caves during
- 5 The studies showed that there are animals that prefer environment.
- 6 The researchers discovered that there are some animals that eat their own and become typical predators.
- 7 Many of the cave animals that were studied during the research were found to be practically
- 8 The researchers noted that cave have much smaller eyes.
- 9 Many of the animals are able to survive in such a barren habitat
because of the nutrients in cave
- 10 However, the researchers found out that the bats are in danger
because they are being affected by a spreading

- 1 People who are assigned to make a presentation tend to be if the lecture they have to give is important.
- 2 It is a fact that having the ability to give a speech is not a, but something that can be learned.
- 3 It is also a fact that audiences tend to only remember one or two presented in a lecture.
- 4 The presenters and lecturers were advised to make their speech short and to themselves.
- 5 They have also been advised to keep their lecture content
- 6 Another advice they were given was not to start their speech until the full audience was
- 7 It is not recommended to just read when giving a talk because it would make the audience lose interest in what you're saying.
- 8 You're advised not to just read your notes, but to write your speech down on a card or a
- 9 Remember that there is no need to write your speech in but just as bullet points will help you remember and stay on track.
- 10 Don't forget to always pay attention to the when giving a speech.

- 1 Modular classrooms are prefabricated buildings that are constructed off-site in a which can be used as portable classrooms.
- 2 Pupils who work in naturally lit classrooms have been shown to perform 26% better than those working in
- 3 Researchers found out that students with a green view outside a performed better on tests that required concentration.
- 4 Modular classrooms feature an extensive use of and are designed to be energy efficient.
- 5 The company makes use of the classroom design to create friendly work environments for children.
- 6 Studies show that the structure and the design of modular classrooms benefits children's academic and
- 7 Modular classroom buildings come with a based on the available resources in the area.
- 8 The modular classroom building structure can be compared to a small
- 9 A green roof or living roof is a roof of a building that is partially or completely covered with
- 10 The number one source of damage and weathering of modular buildings is, so a rainwater collection system has to be installed.

- 1 The water that is polluted by cotton growing farms can be used to aid the progress in
- 2 The water used for can be used as an alternative pesticide, as 20 to 25% of the water is chemicals.
- 3 The problem with using water is that it increases labour costs due to the need for more workers to maintain
- 4 The problem with using water to irrigate cotton farms is that the soil becomes highly salty due to
- 5 Farmers' health is at risk because they do not know that contain a large amount of chemicals.
- 6 The health of cotton farmers is at risk because they work without
- 7 The whiteness of cotton has become a fashion trend as it symbolises creativity,
- 8 The only problem with white clothes made from cotton is that they are difficult to
- 9 People have to use to maintain the whiteness of fabrics made from cotton.
- 10 Designers use colour powders that are inspired by to dye their fabrics.

- 1 Hippocampus is a species of fish that can usually be found in
- 2 Hippocampus species are most likely to be found resting on beds, or coral reefs.
- 3 Hippocampus has a thin skin covering their armor-like body that is composed of
- 4 The coronet is a seahorse's bony crest that's located on the back of their head which looks like a
- 5 Seahorses are very sensitive to red light and the in their diet has to be carefully controlled.
- 6 The seahorse's diet consists mainly of and small crustaceans.
- 7 After, the females place their eggs into the male's brood organ and the males soon become responsible for the eggs.
- 8 The seahorse's colour changes according to their diet and the level of they are experiencing.
- 9 The major threats to the seahorse's survival are habitat destruction,, and ocean currents that sweep and kill babies.
- 10 There are many parasites and infections known to affect seahorses, making them

- 1 American architects in the northwest made use of when making walls.
- 2 They often made a plain and simple layer of for the roof.
- 3 Some of the buildings were even shaped like a
- 4 There were also buildings in the shape of a
- 5 The shape of the houses made from animal skin was similar to the
- 6 Workers and builders also used to make bricks for the walls and the floors.
- 7 House builders made sure that each family member had their own
- 8 The two-floor structures that were built in those times were modeled after the shape of a
- 9 Structures, such as buildings and homes, were built at an for a reason.
- 10 Architecture in Mississippi, on the other hand, made use of the pressure of the

- 1 In the past, the most famous industry in the city of Bridlington was the industry.
- 2 company hired 600 people immediately and it is one of the companies that developed very fast in Bridlington City.
- 3 At present, the most important industry in this town is the
- 4 There are many renovation and expansion projects in the areas that are
- 5 The government is encouraging people to live in Bridlington City to take up
- 6 The purpose of encouraging people to cycle is to reduce the by 20%.
- 7 The renovations and expansion projects in Bridlington City are providing more opportunities and are for locals.
- 8 The students at the Bridlington City University will be enjoying their next semester.
- 9 The local government of Bridlington City has dedicated 100 million square kilometres of land for use.
- 10 The local government of Bridlington City has also dedicated 80 million square kilometres of land for use.

- 1 Popular conversations include topics such as elite athletic and anti-aging genes.
- 2 Although it is important, once it is taken too far, the attitude of becomes violent.
- 3 In professional football matches, the sight of players inhaling on the sideline is commonplace.
- 4 When players obey too strictly to the hurry-up, it could lead them to fatigue, giving the opponent team an advantage.
- 5 Paddles and fins are equipments that uses for their hands and feet.
- 6 The equipment that swimmers put on their hands and feet during practice help their become stronger.
- 7 Cardiovascular exercises like jogging, running or swimming help to increase the number of
- 8 To be able to hit a small target, the shooter has to be calm to have a, and have the proper stance.
- 9 The electro-pulse muscle relaxing unit is perfect to ease and soreness from the comfort of your home.
- 10 Millions of tiny scales make up the and it reduces the friction between the water and the skin when they swim.

- 1 The engineering of steam ships was concurrent with the building of dams,
- 2 The conversation about important structures agreed that the built in the 19th century was the most significant.
- 3 Mr. Brunel first thought that sailing in the Arctic would be
- 4 He chose a bigger ship because the size of its was comparatively small.
- 5 The steamships were with wood, steel and iron frames.
- 6 Mr. Brunel partnered with his brother to set up a company.
- 7 When the ship caught on fire, the sailors into the water, and luckily, they all survived.
- 8 Fortunately, the fire caused little damage because a was installed on the ship.
- 9 The Great Westerner from Bristol arrived in London by across the Atlantic.
- 10 There were also many other companies that sailed across the Atlantic Ocean because they wanted to get a

- 1 When he was a child, he said that he usually went out of school during lunch break to buy
- 2 The science-fiction writer also said that he used to invent when he was a kid.
- 3 Based on his experiences, the science-fiction writer said that people sometimes change their opinions about the
- 4 One of the best things he experienced was going on a journey with the
- 5 In the writer's story, the protagonist installs a in a machine on a plane.
- 6 The writer says that most of the stories he writes are about
- 7 In the story, the assumption about what could have happened to the didn't come true.
- 8 During writing, the of his ideas naturally increased.
- 9 Unfortunately, his ideas weren't realized because there was in the product.
- 10 The science-fiction writer says that his motivation for writing this book is too to talk about.