

1

They only realized the seriousness of the situation after the report was published.

ONLY

It was _____ {only after the report was published that} the seriousness of the situation was realized.

---

2

I regret not having spoken up during the meeting.

WISH

I _____ {wish I had spoken} up during the meeting.

---

3

Despite his experience, he made a fundamental error in judgment.

ALTHOUGH

_____ {Although he was experienced}, he made a fundamental error in judgment.

---

4

The company is highly likely to announce redundancies next month.

CHANCES

The _____ {chances of redundancies being announced} next month are very high.

---

5

"You must not disclose this information under any circumstances," the manager said.

WARNED

The manager _____ {warned us not to} disclose the information under any circumstances.

---

6

She had no idea that the project would become so successful.

LITTLE

_____ {Little did she know} that the project would become so successful.

---

7

They cancelled the flight because of severe weather conditions.

LED

Severe weather conditions _____ {led to the cancellation of} the flight.

---

8

He is not only talented but also extremely disciplined.

ONLY

_____ {Not only is he} talented, but he is also extremely disciplined.

---

9

The moment I entered the room, I realized something was wrong.

NO SOONER

No sooner _____ {had I entered the room than} I realized something was wrong.

---

10

It is essential that we address this issue immediately.

URGENT

It is _____ {of the utmost urgency that} we address this issue immediately.