Rumors at Monster University

It is said that some exams are secretly modified before they are given to students, and because of this, fairness is sometimes questioned.

It is also believed that special advantages are provided to certain students, especially during the most difficult tests.

Mike Wazowski is known for studying all night, and it is said that his notes are often shared among classmates. As a result, his effort is widely recognized, even if it is not always officially rewarded.

Sulley is admired for his natural talent, but it is rumored that additional training is secretly provided to him in private sessions. Because of this, his success is sometimes doubted by others.

furthermore, some areas of the university are said to be restricted for unknown reasons, and strange sounds are reported to be heard at night.

It is believed that memories of former students are still preserved in those places, and that their presence has not been completely forgotten.

The scaring program is controlled by very strict professors, and it is said that special rules are applied only to selected students.

In addition, important information is believed to be hidden by the administration, and many secrets are rumored to be kept from the public.

finally, it is said that not everything that happens at Monster University is officially revealed, and that many stories remain unknown.
