

1. Vocabulary Match (Describing Taste) – harder

Match the words with the correct definitions:

1. bitter
2. sweet
3. spicy
4. sour
5. salty
6. savoury

- a) having a pleasant taste of sugar or honey
- b) having a sharp taste like lemon or vinegar
- c) having a strong, sometimes unpleasant taste like black coffee
- d) containing a lot of salt
- e) having a hot taste from spices (e.g. chili)
- f) not sweet, often rich and full of flavour (e.g. meat, cheese)

2. Fill in the blanks – harder

Use: sweet, salty, spicy, sour, bitter, savoury (some words more than once)

1. Dark chocolate is often _____, not very sweet.
2. Pizza is usually _____, not sweet.
3. Lemons taste very _____.
4. Chips are too _____ if you add a lot of salt.
5. Indian food is often very _____.
6. Coffee without sugar can taste _____.
7. Cakes and desserts are usually _____.

3. Dialogue Practice (Eating Out) – harder

Complete the dialogue with correct forms of the phrases:
book a table, look at the menu, order a meal, pay the bill,
leave a tip, waiter

A: Hello! We would like to _____ for two people.

B: Of course. Follow me. Here is your table. This is your _____.

A: Thank you. Let's _____ before we decide.

B: Are you ready to _____?

A: Yes, I'll have pasta and my friend will have soup.

(After eating)

A: Can we _____, please?

B: Sure.

A: The service was great. Let's _____.

5 B. Complete the sentences:

1. We decided to _____ because the restaurant was full.
2. I always _____ before choosing my food.
3. The _____ brought our drinks quickly.
4. We _____ and then waited for our food.
5. At the end, we _____ and left the restaurant.

C. Error correction (find and correct mistakes):

1. I very like spicy food.
2. We paid the menu after dinner.
3. The waiter cooked our meal.
4. This soup is too sweet, it needs salt.
5. I book a table yesterday.

5. Choose the correct answer – MUCH bigger & harder

A. Choose the correct option:

1. A person who cooks food in a restaurant is a:
 2. a) waiter
 3. b) chef
 4. c) customer
5. You usually _____ before going to a popular restaurant.
 6. a) pay the bill
 7. b) book a table
 8. c) leave a tip
9. When you want to see food options, you:
 10. a) read a review
 11. b) look at the menu
 12. c) order a dessert
13. If the food is very hot with spices, it is:
 14. a) sour
 15. b) spicy
 16. c) bitter
17. A person who eats in a restaurant is a:
 18. a) customer
 19. b) manager
 20. c) chef
21. After eating, you usually:
 22. a) order a meal
 23. b) pay the bill
 24. c) grill food
25. Food like meat, cheese, or soup is usually:
 26. a) sweet
 27. b) savoury
 28. c) sour
29. If food has too much salt, it is:
 30. a) bitter
 31. b) salty
 32. c) spicy