Rina, Budi, and Siti are good friends. They are in the same class, but they have different abilities.

Rina can sing very well. She often joins singing competitions at school. She can also play the guitar. However, she can't swim. She is afraid of water.

Budi is very active. He can swim fast and play football very well. Every weekend, he plays football with his friends. But Budi can't sing. He feels shy when he sings in front of people.

Siti is smart and creative. She can draw beautiful pictures and cook simple meals. She helps her mother in the kitchen. However, she can't ride a bicycle because she never practices.

Even though they have different abilities, they also have similarities. All of them can speak English quite well because they practice every day at school. They can also work together and help each other.

They understand that everyone has strengths and weaknesses. What is important is to keep learning and support each other.
