HOMESTAY HOLIDAYS

Nikos

Homestay holidays are becoming very popular, and people everywhere are offering their homes as hotels. My home is in a village in northwest Greece, but it is not for people who enjoy beach holidays. The village is in the mountains and there are 45 other villages in the area. If you are fit, you can walk from one village to the other. The mountain views are fantastic, and you cross old bridges and go past forests where bears live

Our home is near the centre of Sydney, Australia's largest city. It is perfect for a homestay holiday. Sydney is a friendly place, with lots of cafes, restaurants and clubs, which are open until long after midnight and where people can enjoy themselves. However, it is noisy at night and there is a lot of traffic during the day. The best thing about Sydney is the weather. It is good all year; it rains in the winter, but it is too warm to snow.

Marcus

Our house is by the sea in the southwest of England, a 15-minute drive from the village of Porthcurno. It is a great place for a relaxing homestay holiday. There are lots of beaches and rivers, and it is very quiet. You can spend a lot of time reading and going for walks. There is a special open-air theatre nearby, on the side of the cliffs. As you watch a show, you can look out to sea. Our area is also great if you enjoy surfing, kayaking and mountain biking.

4. Describe a time when you helped a friend or family member who was feeling sad, angry, or upset. (More than 150 words)

1. Who was the person you helped, and what was your relationship to them (a friend, family member, classmate)?
2. Why was this person feeling upset, sad, or angry? (Did something specific happen to them?)
3. How did you know that the person needed help or support? (Did they tell you, or did you notice certain behaviors or expressions?)
4. What did you do to help? (Did you talk to them, give them a hug, spend time with them, or do something kind?)
5. How did the person react to your kindness? How did it make you feel to help someone who was having a tough time?
