Choose the correct prefix

1. My alarm clock didn't go off so I _____slept this morning.
2. Lena _____lines all important words in her French coursebook.
3. I've decided to _____write the letter because I made to many mistakes.
4. It's _____usually cold today, considering it's still summer.
5. Can you turn the _____titles for the film? I can't understand their accent.
6. He felt _____secure about his skills and chose not to apply for the position.
7. These jeans can be laundered at 60°C. They are _____shrinkable.
8. Although his plan seemed _____realistic at first glance, he eventually succeeded.
9. I have to go to the library today and _____new my card.
10. Eating junk food daily is _____healthy!
11. Our team was completely _____played by the team from the other school.
12. He had every right to complain but his tone sounded _____necessarily _____polite.
13. I _____understood the question and gave an _____correct answer.
14. The call was suddenly _____connected when we drove into the tunnel.
15. His work may be _____perfect, but it still shows a great effort.
16. I usually travel light, so I packed a few t-shirts, another pair of jeans and some _____wear.
17. You promised a high-quality product, but it was _____standard and broke down quickly.
18. Temperatures dropped below _____zero in the mountains.
19. If someone is _____honest about the little things, can you trust them with the big ones?
20. His suggestion to ignore the problem was _____helpful since we needed a clear solution before the deadline.

LIVEWORKSHEETS