

Benefits of Vietnam As a Member of International Organizations

Good morning everyone! Today, I want to talk about the benefits of Vietnam as a member of international organizations.

Vietnam is a member of international organizations such as ASEAN, the United Nations, and the World Trade Organization, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC), UNESCO, World Health Organization (WHO). These organizations help countries (1) _____ and Vietnam has many benefits from them.

First, First, being a member of international organizations better our country's international relationships. Vietnam can (2) _____ with other countries. This helps Vietnam work together with many nations and (3) _____. Second, Second, it promotes economic development. International organizations help Vietnam (4) _____ with other countries. Vietnam can sell more products and (5) _____ more jobs for people.

Lastly, it enhances our learning and development. Vietnam can learn new ideas and (5) _____ from other countries. This helps Vietnam (7) _____ education, health, and the environment.

For example, through ASEAN, Vietnamese students can join exchange programs. Vietnamese products are also (8) _____ to sell to other countries. WHO helps countries improve (9) _____. It supports Vietnam in fighting diseases and protecting people's health. APEC helps countries (10) _____ the economy. It (10) _____ trade, business, and cooperation in the Asia-Pacific region. UNESCO helps protect culture and education. Vietnam can protect world heritage sites and improve (12) _____.