

1. Match each word to the correct definition.

Words	Definitions
1. Appealing	A. Showing good judgment
2. Witty	B. Extremely angry
3. Premeditated	C. Planned in advance (often for something bad)
4. Furious	D. Desiring something that belongs to someone else
5. Sensible	E. Clever and funny with words
6. Covetous	F. Attractive or interesting

2. Choose the most appropriate word (not just “correct,” but best fit).

1. She didn't just answer quickly—she gave a thoughtful _____.

- a) reply
- b) reaction
- c) response

2. The movie wasn't just good—it was really _____ to watch.

- a) likable
- b) appealing
- c) pleasing

3. He didn't get angry—he became absolutely _____.

- a) mad
- b) angry
- c) furious

4. This wasn't a random act—it was carefully _____.

- a) planned
- b) deliberate
- c) calculated

5. She isn't just smart—she's quick and funny in conversation.

- a) intelligent
- b) clever
- c) witty

3. Explain the difference between these pairs in your own words.

1. Reply vs Respond
2. Angry vs Furious
3. Jealous vs Envious
4. Smart vs Intelligent
5. Deliberate vs Calculated

Tip: Think about:

- level of intensity
- emotion vs logic
- formal vs informal use

4. Fill in the blanks with crook • jealous • reasonable • annoy • reply

1. He tried to hide it, but his _____ behavior showed he wanted her success.
2. The thief was actually a known _____ in the area.
3. She gave a quick _____ after thinking carefully.
4. He didn't mean to _____ you—it was an accident.
5. The teacher is strict but very _____ and fair.

5. Rewrite using a stronger or more precise synonym.

1. He is very angry.
→ _____
2. She is very smart.
→ _____
3. The plan was made before.
→ _____
4. That dress is very attractive.
→ _____