

Instructions: Choose the correct answer (A, B, or C).

1. What is the main purpose of Daniel's presentation?
  - A. To entertain the audience with stories
  - B. To explain social and economic issues
  - C. To describe his personal experiences

2. How is Daniel's presentation organized?
  - A. Chronologically by events
  - B. Around one single idea
  - C. Into three thematic sections

3. What is the role of transport in cities?
  - A. It increases pollution levels
  - B. It contributes to safer environments
  - C. It replaces urban planning

4. Why does Daniel mention recycling and energy?
  - A. To support sustainability ideas
  - B. To criticize modern cities
  - C. To compare different countries

5. What is the function of Daniel's visual aids?
  - A. To replace his explanation
  - B. To reduce speaking time
  - C. To support audience engagement

6. How do wages and employment relate to his topic?
  - A. They affect personal relationships
  - B. They reduce environmental issues
  - C. They improve economic stability

7. What is implied about training and skills?
  - A. They are not necessary for growth
  - B. They help increase productivity
  - C. They only benefit businesses

8. What is Daniel's perspective on poverty?
  - A. It can improve with support systems
  - B. It depends only on individuals
  - C. It cannot be reduced easily

9. What does "well-being" refer to in the conversation?
  - A. Overall quality of life
  - B. Financial success only
  - C. Educational achievement

10. Why does Roxy approve of the structure?
- A. It is detailed but informal
  - B. It is short and simple
  - C. It is logical and easy to follow It is short and simple
11. What strategy does Paul use to involve the audience?
- A. Providing long explanations
  - B. Including interactive questions
  - C. Using informal language only
12. What is the main benefit of interaction in presentations?
- A. It increases audience participation
  - B. It avoids difficult topics
  - C. It shortens the presentation