

1.2 Present Simple.

Positive and negative sentences

- We use Present Simple to talk about routines and habits.

+	I / You / We / They like reading books.	He / She / It likes reading books.
-	I / You / We / They don't like playing football.	He / She / It doesn't like playing football.
?	Do I / you / we / they like reading books?	Does he / she / it like reading books?

Remember! Spelling Rules:

general rule -s	verbs ending in - o, sh, tch, s, x -es	verbs ending in consonants + y -ies
work - works eat - eats play - plays swim - swims walk - walks	brush - brushes go - goes kiss - kisses watch - watches mix - mixes	study - studies try - tries cry - cries fly - flies spy - spies

Remember have - has

Exercise 1

Add -s / -es / -ies to the verbs.

Example: like likes

1. wash

3. study

5. pass washes

7. say

9. read

2. touch

4. dry

6. do

8. match

10. talk

LIVEWORKSHEETS