

1.2 Present Simple.

Positive and negative sentences

- We use Present Simple to talk about routines and habits.

+	I / You / We / They like reading books.	He / She / It likes reading books.
-	I / You / We / They don't like playing football.	He / She / It doesn't like playing football.
?	Do I / you / we / they like reading books?	Does he / she / it like reading books?

Remember! Spelling Rules:

general rule -s	verbs ending in - o, sh, tch, s, x -es	verbs ending in consonants + y -ies
work - works eat - eats play - plays swim - swims walk - walks	brush - brushes go - goes kiss - kisses watch - watches mix - mixes	study - studies try - tries cry - cries fly - flies spy - spies

Remember have - has

Exercise 3

Correct mistakes in the sentences. Rewrite correct sentences.

Example: Does your dad likes rock music?

Does your dad like rock music?

1. Picnic is food that you takes out to eat.

2. He don't like coffee.

3. We always goes to the cinema together.

4. Do your parents watches horror films?

5. Jim never brushies his teeth in the evening.

6. Dos he like playing basketball?