

1. If a problem appears unexpectedly, you _____ it.
 - a) carry on
 - b) run into
 - c) avoid

2. If you want to continue working after a problem, you _____.
 - a) carry on
 - b) point out
 - c) deal with

3. If you want to highlight a mistake, you _____ it.
 - a) avoid
 - b) run into
 - c) point out

4. If you want to manage a difficult situation, you _____ it.
 - a) deal with
 - b) come up with
 - c) carry on

5. If you want to stop a problem before it happens, you _____ it.
 - a) point out
 - b) avoid
 - c) run into

6. If you create a new idea or solution, you _____ it.
 - a) deal with
 - b) come up with
 - c) carry on

1. I usually run into problems step by step. _____
2. We need to come up with a better strategy. _____
3. It's important to avoid risks early. _____
4. We carried on working despite the issue. _____
5. I pointed out a solution to the problem. _____
6. He dealt with the situation very well. _____

Word Box: deal with – come up with – run into – point out – carry on – avoid

1. If we don't plan properly, we may _____ problems later.
2. When there is a difficult situation, we need to _____ it carefully.
3. It's important to _____ working even when things are difficult.
4. A good manager should _____ problems clearly to the team.
5. We need to _____ new ideas to improve the process.

Write complete sentences using the phrasal verbs.

1. deal with

→ _____

2. run into

→ _____

3. carry on

→ _____

4. avoid

→ _____