

A STORMY ADVENTURE

A Stormy Day Adventure

One afternoon, the sky turned dark and heavy clouds filled the air. At first, there was only a light drizzle, and small raindrops began to fall on the ground.

“Let’s go inside,” said Ana, looking up nervously.

Suddenly, a bright flash of lightning lit up the sky, followed by a loud rumble of thunder that made everyone jump.

Then the rain got stronger. Heavy showers poured down, and soon the streets started to fill with water. “It’s going to flood!” shouted Luis as he watched the water rise.

The next morning, everything was quiet. During the night, the weather had changed, and a thick snowfall covered the village in white.

But later that day, the clouds disappeared, and warm sunshine filled the sky again. Children went outside, laughing and playing after the storm.

“What a crazy day!” said Ana. “From rain to snow to sun—all in one day!”
