Hi! I'm from Perth, Australia and I've got an unusual hobby. I'm a toy voyager. I enjoy taking care of someone else's toys. I also like sending my toys by post to other people who are also keen on looking after them for some time. Register on a special website and you will get a toy voyager ID and then you can create a profile and a travelling log for your travelling toy. Yesterday, I received a Life Mission for Rexy, a T-Rex dinosaur toy I'm looking after. The owner of the toy wants me to take Rexy with me to school tomorrow. Being a toy voyager is really good fun!

Hi there! My sister Katie's got a curious hobby too. She likes practising extreme ironing. It's a competitive sport. Some people call it 'EI' too. Extreme ironing consists of ironing clothes while you are doing an extreme sport like rock climbing, surfing, kayaking, etc. So you need to be very cautious to practise this sport. Last year, 500 people entered a national competition in my country that took place in Auckland.
