Bike Safety Tips for Kids

Riding a bike is a fun way to get exercise and to spend time with family and friends. It's very important that all children are aware of different safety rules to ride a bike, so they can avoid injuries. By following some simple practices, you can have fun on your bike and still be safe.

Here are some rules for kids who bike on sidewalks and at the park...

• Wear a helmet. Make sure it's properly adjusted, fitted, and buckled.

• Check your bike for safety. Make sure the tires have enough air, the brakes and gears work, the chain isn't loose, and the wheels and bolts are tight.

• Look and listen for traffic when crossing the road.

• Never use a cell phone or wear headphones.

• Keep both hands on the handlebars, except when signaling.

• Carry books and other items in a backpack or bag designed to fit on a bicycle.

• Don't ride too fast.
