2. Circle A, B, C, or D to indicate the sentence that is closest in meaning to each of the following questions.

Question 1: The novel received critical acclaim. It was published last year.

A. The novel which it was published last year received critical acclaim.

B. The novel who received critical acclaim was published last year.

C. The novel which received critical acclaim was published last year.

D. The novel received critical acclaim which was published last year.

Question 2: The scientist discovered a new species. She won a prestigious award.

A. The scientist who she won a prestigious award discovered a new species.

B. The scientist which discovered a new species, won a prestigious award.

C. The scientist who discovered a new species won a prestigious award.

D. The scientist discovered a new species, which she won a prestigious award.

Question 3: The documentary explores climate change. It was nominated for an Oscar.

A. The documentary explores climate change was nominated for an Oscar.

B. The documentary which was nominated for an Oscar explores climate change.

C. The documentary that explores climate change, which was nominated for an Oscar.

D. The documentary who explores climate change was nominated for an Oscar.

Question 4: The chef prepared a special menu. It features seasonal ingredients.

A. The chef, who features seasonal ingredients, prepared a special menu.

B. The chef prepared a special menu which features seasonal ingredients.

C. The chef, which prepared a special menu, features seasonal ingredients.

D. The chef prepared a special menu that features seasonal ingredients.

Question 5: The theories were groundbreaking. They changed the field of psychology.

A. The theories which changed the field of psychology were groundbreaking.

B. The theories who changed the field of psychology were groundbreaking.

C. The theories which they were groundbreaking changed the field of psychology.

D. The theories, changed the field of psychology, were groundbreaking.

LIVEWORKSHEETS