

Countable or Uncountable?

1. What's the correct answer? Write C if the noun is countable or U if it's uncountable.

bananas	_____	pineapple	_____	grapes	_____
love	_____	library	_____	printer	_____
beauty	_____	student	_____	laptop	_____
school	_____	box	_____	university	_____
money	_____	bottle	_____	food	_____
classroom	_____	plate	_____	letter	_____
baby	_____	jewellery	_____	coffee	_____
pizza	_____	pen	_____	country	_____
honey	_____	music	_____	exercise	_____
sugar	_____	information	_____	tea	_____
happiness	_____	meat	_____	ice cream	_____

2. Use a / an or some to fill in the gaps.

- I want _____ apple and _____ water.
- She has _____ carrots and _____ bag of chips.
- I have _____ box of shoes.
- There is _____ bottle of water.
- There is _____ umbrella behind the door.
- There are _____ strawberries in the fridge.
- Luke has _____ orange and _____ apples.
- I would like _____ slice of cake.
- I want to eat _____ cheeseburger.
- There are _____ potatoes and onions.
- _____ children are playing in the backyard.
- They would like _____ cone of chocolate ice cream.
- There is _____ new pharmacy in town.
- I would like _____ glass of lemon juice.
- I have _____ pancakes left.
- Amy wants _____ egg sandwich.