Vocabulary and grammar

1 Choose the correct modal. (4 points)

1. Drivers ... forget to stop at the stop sign.

   a. mustn't
   b. shouldn't

2. We ... clean up the kitchen after we bake biscuits.

   a. mustn't
   b. should

3. My grandmother thinks I ... get engaged, but I'm not ready.

   a. must
   b. should

4. I think you ... buy a red jacket.

   a. should
   b. must

5. I'm sorry, but you ... buy your tickets before you get on the train.

   a. must
   b. should

6. You ... spend all your money. I think it's a bad idea. test

   a. mustn't
   b. shouldn't

7. ... eat? I'm hungry.

   a. What I can
   b. What should I

8. You ... take your sister's clothes without permission.

   a. mustn't
   b. should

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Vocabulary and grammar

2 Choose the correct modal. (8 points)

1. I can / can't play basketball well now. I'm very good, but I must / shouldn't practise to get better.
2. In my opinion, Claire couldn't / shouldn't leave school. I can / must help her with her lessons.
3. At the school swimming pool, you mustn't / can't run or jump and you must / could wear a swimming cap.
4. Students mustn't / couldn't be rude to their teachers and they must / can also respect their parents.
5. Sam and Emily can't / mustn't get along, so I think they should / can get divorced.
6. I think you should / could listen to your grandfather. His advice can / must help you!
7. I can't / couldn't come over yesterday because I was sick. Can / Could we meet today?
8. We mustn't / should see the new action film. Can / Should you come to the cinema with me this afternoon?

3 Complete the sentences with the words below. (8 points)

stepmother · get engaged · had a baby · moved · granddaughter · grandparents · wife · husband

1. When you ..... , you agree to marry somebody.
2. My 12-year-old ..... won first place in the gymnastics competition!
3. Ella loves John and wants him to be her ..... .
4. Jenny's family ..... to a different city last week.
5. Mike and Ellie became husband and ..... last May.
6. I'm having lunch with my dad's new wife – my ..... .
7. My sister ..... , so now I'm an aunt!
8. I'm visiting my ..... this weekend – they are having a barbecue!

LIVEWORKSHEETS