

WRITING TASK

Topic: Past Simple vs Present Perfect

Read the situation and write a short story (120–150 words).

Use:

- Past Simple (finished actions in the past)
- Present Perfect (life experience / result / “already, just, never”)

TASK

You are a student who has just returned from a trip to London.

Write about your experience.

Include:

- what you did in London
- what places you visited
- what you have already done in your life before this trip
- what new experiences you had for the first time

GUIDING QUESTIONS

You can answer these questions in your text:

- Where did you go in London?
- What did you do yesterday / during the trip?
- Have you ever visited a famous landmark before?
- What have you already done this year?
- What was the most interesting moment?

LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Past Simple:

- I visited...
- I went to...
- I saw...
- I met...

Present Perfect:

- I have already...
- I have never...
- I have just...
- I have been to...

EXAMPLE START (optional for students)

I have just returned from London. It was an amazing experience. I visited many famous places such as Big Ben and the London Eye...
