Nowadays cards and posters of pictures by Amedeo Modigliani are popular with people all over the world, but the artist himself did not have an easy life. He was born in Livorno, Italy, in 1884. His father was a businessman who did not make much money, and his mother ran a school.

Modigliani went to art school in Florence and Venice, before moving to Paris where he painted and made sculptures. His works were influenced by art from Africa which he saw in museums. He was very poor and not very strong, and after a few years, he gave up making sculptures. He painted people in a gentle and thoughtful style.

Many of his most beautiful paintings are about Jeanne, the woman he loved. Often the people in his paintings look sad or tired. Perhaps Modigliani was painting his own feelings. Although in the end he began to make a little money, he was never very successful in his lifetime.
