Nicolás: Well, I thought everyone would speak French / Italian, for starters.

Juan: _____, most people here only speak English. French is mainly in Québec.

Nicolás: I know that now! And I thought the healthcare was completely free.

Juan: It covers a lot — but not everything.

Dental and vision are usually _____. _____, if your employer offers benefits, that helps a lot.

Nicolás: Good to know. What about the _____? I brought so many winter coats!

Juan: Ha! Well, winters here are tough, _____ summers are actually really nice. It depends on the _____.

Nicolás: And what about people? Everyone seems so polite.

Juan: They are! Very _____. Though making close friends takes time. Don't take it personally — it's just the culture.

Nicolás: That's actually useful to know. And the job _____?

Juan: It's _____. In fact, getting your credentials recognized can be a real challenge. But with good English and some local experience, the opportunities are definitely there.

Nicolás: Honestly, the biggest shock was the rent.

Juan: Oh, total _____, right? Actually, there are more _____ cities. But yes — Toronto and Vancouver are expensive.

Nicolás: Nobody told me any of this before I came!

Juan: That's why we listen to this podcast!
