

Text C

You are going to hear a conversation between two university students, Jenny and Richard, about their views on laws.

Complete the following gaps. Use no more than three words for each gap.

Jenny's notes from the conversation:

Ideas for my speech
My ideas	Ideas from Richard
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Laws are necessary only for [ - 17 - ].</li> <li>If laws were effective, [ - 18 - ] would have been stopped.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Laws are necessary to [ - 16 - ].</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>When a law is created for a simple matter, it is often [ - 20 - ].</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Laws for simple matters can be [ - 19 - ] for the way we behave.</li> </ul>

16. [ - 16 - ] .....
17. [ - 17 - ] .....
18. [ - 18 - ] .....
19. [ - 19 - ] .....
20. [ - 20 - ] .....

Choose the correct answer.

21. For Jenny, the use of mobile phones during a conversation is most likely...
- A. normal.
- B. annoying.
- C. funny.
22. Richard believes that people leave chewing gum around because...
- A. they are unaware of the effect.
- B. everybody does it.
- C. there is no law to stop them.
23. Richard thinks Jenny would disagree with...
- A. how long chewing gum was banned.
- B. the penalty for selling chewing gum.
- C. the people's reaction to the law.
24. Richard believes that people in Singapore do not chew gum nowadays because the law...
- A. still forbids it.
- B. is now different.
- C. still has an impact.
25. According to Jenny, the idea of a "nudge"...
- A. allows choices.
- B. improves laws.
- C. reduces options.